Important information about your flight

Each passenger is responsible for having the documentation required for flying according to their particular situation.

Vueling and Level (for flights within Europe) check-in desks close 40 minutes before flight departure, with the following exceptions: in Rome and St Petersburg, they close 45 minutes before departure; and in Amsterdam, Tel Aviv, Beirut, Algiers, Marrakesh and Oran, or if you are travelling from Barcelona to Tel Aviv or from Paris (Orly) to Casablanca, they close 60 minutes before departure.

Boarding starts 40 minutes before flight departure and ends 20 minutes before departure.

If any of your flights is operated by another company, check-in and boarding times may vary. Please check their website.

If you are disabled or suffer from reduced mobility and you forgot to inform us while making your booking, you must phone our Customer Services Centre at least 48 hours before the scheduled flight departure. This procedure is necessary in order to guarantee that assistance will be available.

You can get more information in the conditions of carriage of the airline operating the flight: Conditions of Carriage of Vueling, Conditions of Carriage of Level, Conditions of Carriage of Iberia or Conditions of Carriage of British Airways.

IMPORTANT NOTICE...

Transport conducted under this contract is subject to the rules and limitations relating to the liability of airlines with regards to the air transport of passengers and their luggage as set out in the Montreal Convention of 28 May 1999 and Regulation (CE) 2027/97 in its version as amended by Regulation (CE) 889/2002. In Spanish domestic transport, the liability of Vueling Airlines, S.A. («Vueling») is also subject to the limitations provided for in the Air Traffic Act of 21 July 1960 and its implementing provisions in those cases in which they are applicable. In this respect, the maximum limits of liability applicable to Vueling will correspond to the amounts in euros equivalent to: (i) 113,100 special drawing rights ("SDRs") in the case of death or injury to passengers (ii) 4,694 SDRs in the case of delayed flights, and (iii) 1,131 SDRs in the case of destruction, loss, damage or delay of baggage. Passengers must present a formal claim in writing, to which a copy of the PIR must be attached, within (i) 7 days from reception of the baggage in the case of damage, (ii) 21 days from reception of the baggage in the case of delay and (iii) two years from the date of the flight for lost baggage, in accordance with the Montreal Convention. If the value of the luggage exceeds the above limit, the passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration of value at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee. The above provisions on liability limitation are included in the Vueling Travel Conditions applicable to this contract and available on the company's website (www.vueling.com) and at its airport sales desks.
